PREFACE

When a licence for marrying without the proclamation of banns was granted by the Bishop of Chester or those duly appointed by him for that purpose, a form, known as a Marriage Licence Bond, was filled up by the contracting parties and their surety or bondsman and deposited with the registrar. From these forms,[1] short abstracts in Latin, containing the main facts in the case, were entered into a folio volume kept by the registrar.

The following volume contains short English abstracts of the entries contained in the first of these Marriage Licence Act Books, which covers the period between the dates 18th July 1606 and 22nd March 1616.

Through the kindness of the Registrars, the transcript has been made by Mr. W. H. Price, the registrars' clerk, who has carefully collated the proof with the original manuscript.

The following particulars of the Act Books relating to Marriage Licences still remaining in the Registry at Chester will be found of interest :—

Dates of Marriage Licence Volumes in the Registry.—1606 (July 18) to 1615–16 (March 22); 1616 (April 11) to 1624 (May 17); 1624 (May 18) to 1631–2 (March 24); Hiatus; 1639 (March 30) to 1644 (Oct. 21). NOTE.—The entries at end of this volume, following the entry of licence John Baxter and Dorothy Brooke of 27th June 1642 and extending to 21st Oct. 1644, appear to have been very irregularly entered, and it is a question whether the volume contains the whole of the licences issued during this period (June 1642 to Oct. 1644). Probably not, unless owing to the troublesome times fewer licences were granted. Hiatus; 1666–7 (Jan. 9) to 1679–80 (March 24); 1680 (April 6) to 1694 (Dec. 27); 1695 (March 25) to 1700 (Aug. 31); Hiatus; 1719 (June) to 1726 (Oct.); 1726 (Oct.) to 1732; 1733 to 1772; 1733 to 1745; 1745 to 1762; 1755 to 1757; 1788 to 1796; Hiatus. The volumes are continuous from 1838. The volumes from 1733 to 1796 are very irregularly entered up.

The original marriage licence bonds begin in 1661.

The documents at Chester only relate to licences affecting residents within the ancient Archdeaconry of Chester, i.e. all Cheshire, Lancashire south of the Ribble, and the Welsh parishes in Bangor Deanery. The licences for the Archdeaconry of Richmond are at Lancaster.

INDEXES

OF CHRISTIAN NAMES AND SURNAMES.

Where the name has variants, the name most closely resembling the modern equivalent has been selected for the Head-name, and, generally, the variants are cross-indexed.

Where a Surname has an alias, each form of Surname is indexed under its initial letter.

[——] signifies "No Christian name."

The Asterisks following a page number denote the number of times the combination of Christian and Surname occur on the page. The same remark applies to the page numbers in the Index of Places.
